Horse Show Policy

- * Entry form is to be sent in before closing date by each customer, Kroff Stables will not fill out entry forms as that is the owners responsibility. If the show office has not received an entry form for your horse and Kroff Stables has to fill out the entry there will be a $25 fee added to your show invoice labelled "Convenience fee"
- * Grooming and hauling is to be paid in advance, please talk to James as these amounts change. If those fees are not received your horse will not go to the horse show.
- * If you are not planning on attending the show but sending your horse you may need to send checks with your horse. Three checks are potentially needed; one for horse show office, one for the braider (if needed) and one for Kroff Stables, they will need to be handed to James directly at least 2 days before the horse's leave.
- * Each client MUST close out in the horse show office, with the grooms, and Kroff Stables on Sunday of each show week. If a check or email confirmation of bank transfer is not received by Kroff Stables on the Sunday of a show week a $10 fee, per day until invoice is paid, will be added to your next invoice.

* Note: The braider needs to be paid on Saturday of each week

Should Kroff Stables have to pay for any customer bills at the horse show (i.e. horse show bill, grooms, braider) a fee of 10% of the bill will be charged to said customer.

* Horse(s) must be current on all at home bills to go to the show. If the show falls on the first of the month, training must be paid in full before we leave for the show. No exceptions.

Other Fees that might occur at the Horse show

- * Onsite vet
- * Onsite farrier
- * Horse supplies

Horse Show Expenses- Customers will split the following

- * Shavings, feed, and groom stalls- commonly through the horse show
  - * Trainer travel expenses
  - * Trainer, assistant trainer and grooms hotel room(s)
  - * Plane fare and rental car if needed
  - * Food during horse show
